SOS Children's Village

Thrissur

Social work department arranged an orientation class from SOS village Thrissur on 17th February. The session started at 2 pm by the welcome speech was delivered by Ms.Asha Maria Paul (Asst. Prof. Social Work Department) and the youth wing coordinator of SOS village Thrissur Mr Noyal Jose taken a class on " Orientation on SOS". The SOS Children's Village in Thrissur started its activities in the year 1983. At present, there are over 170 children in 17 family homes, who are living under the care of 11 SOS Mothers, two SOS Aunts and six Mother Trainees. Their aim through the Family Based Care Programme is to ensure that no child grows up alone and has a loving family to call its own. When children are welcomed in the village, all necessary measures are taken to help them adjust well to their new environment and family members. During the detailed session various activities, the structure of the agency, the funding of the agency, the procedures and norms of the admission process, and the role of the social worker are mainly discussed in class with a video clip presentation about the agency. At the same time, the resource person examines further doubts of students and gives a clear explanation of the raised questions. Introducing a new type of organization is a great opportunity for students to learn new things in the social work profession. And the session has wind up at 3: 30 pm with the vote of thanks delivered by first-year student Jeff Jaison.
