Action Taken Report:

Following the resolutions taken at the IQAC meeting held on November 15th, 2019, the following actions were taken:

- Placement Training Programs:
 - The placement cell organized a series of training programs for the students to improve their employability skills.
 - Industry experts were invited to the college to deliver training sessions and workshops to the students.
 - Mock interviews and group discussions were conducted to help students improve their communication and interpersonal skills.
- Placement Drives:
 - The placement cell invited several reputed firms to participate in the placement drives.
 - The students were provided with an opportunity to interact with the recruiters and showcase their skills and abilities.
 - Several students were selected and offered placements in various reputed companies.
- Honoring Rank Holders:
 - The college honored the rank holders on 22nd February 2020 during the annual college day celebrations.
 - The students were felicitated with certificates and cash awards for their outstanding academic achievements.
- Workshop on NAAC Assessment:
 - A workshop on NAAC assessment for faculties was conducted under the Paramarsh scheme.
 - St. Thomas College was invited as the mentor college to facilitate the workshop.
 - The workshop helped the faculties to gain a better understanding of the NAAC assessment process and its significance.

- Extension Activities:
 - The college organized various extension activities to raise student awareness towards the community.
 - Blood donation camps, tree plantation drives, and cleanliness campaigns were conducted.
 - The students actively participated in these activities and learned the importance of social responsibility.
- CO, PO, and PSO:
 - CO, PO, and PSO were formed for those courses where they were not included in the university syllabus.
 - The faculties were briefed about the importance of these parameters and were encouraged to implement them in their respective courses.
- Paper Documentation:
 - The college employees were educated about the importance of paper documentation for NAAC work.
 - A separate cell was set up to maintain the NAAC-related documents and reports.
 - The employees were trained to maintain proper records and ensure the timely submission of reports.
- Feedback from stakeholders
 - A survey was conducted to gather feedback on the current curriculum from current students, alumni, and faculty members.
 - The feedback was then analyzed and evaluated by the IQAC to identify areas that require improvement.
 - After receiving feedback, recommendations were sent to the University to modify the curriculum accordingly, in order to satisfy the requirements and expectations of all stakeholders.

In conclusion, the IQAC meeting held on November 15th, 2019, was productive, and appropriate actions were taken to implement the resolutions. The actions taken have resulted in the overall development of the college and its students.
